

MOSQUES

In Türkiye, non-Muslims are allowed to enter mosques during prayer times and Islamic Shoes should be removed before entering the mosque and some rules regarding clothing should be observed. For example, women should not enter the mosque. Shoes should be removed before entering the mosque and some rules regarding clothing should be observed. For example, women should not enter the mosque. Men should cover their heads, shoulders and legs during their visits. They should prefer trousers.

BUSES AND TRAMS

Buses and trams are public transport vehicles used to get from one place to another for a fee. You can get a transportation card when boarding public buses and trams. You can access public transportation vehicles from the front door. get on and get off from the back door.

SHOTS AND PHOTOGRAPHY

In general, you can take photos anywhere. If someone doesn't want to be photographed, that's a consideration. Photography and video recording are prohibited in police and military facilities.

MUSEUMS AND OPENING HOURS

Museums are closed on Mondays throughout Türkiye. Generally, they are open from 9:00 AM to 5:00 PM. Some of them close for lunch between 12:00 and 13:30. Open-air ancient archaeological museums are open until sunset. It can be visited from 09:00 until 09:00.

Circuses and Dolphin Shows

To prevent animal abuse, please do not attend dolphin shows or circuses. No living creature is allowed to be taken from its environment and used for entertainment purposes and cannot be happy about it.

ANTIQUE

The export of all types of antiques is prohibited. Enforcement of the ban is carefully monitored. Small glass fragments including, will be punished severely. You must be careful. Antiques, old coins, fossils (including seashells) It is prohibited by law to export natural stones etc. (including natural stones). Failure to do so may result in imprisonment and fines.

This penalty applies to all found and, broadly speaking, all cultural objects.

Thank you for your sensitivity towards historical artifacts and museums, and I would like to thank you for your sensitivity towards the museums and historical sites in Istanbul.

We would like to remind you that visiting these areas will contribute to historical and cultural values.

For any emergency that may occur outside the hotel, you can call our hotel or Emergency Service 112.